

HONOR POLLOK JOINS AS A PARTNER IN THE GLOBAL TECHNOLOGY, MEDIA & TELECOMS PRACTICE AT CTPARTNERS

LONDON – 31st May 2011: CTPartners (AMEX: CTP), a leading global executive search firm, announced today that Honor Pollok has joined the firm as Partner in its Technology, Media & Telecommunications Practice. With a strong track record in Media and Entertainment, Honor specialises in conducting searches for wide range of Board and leadership roles within the sector.

Through her executive search career, Honor has led the Media and Entertainment Practices for Korn/Ferry International and Miles Partnership and been a key practice member with Bird & Co. With a focus on the media, entertainment and digital industries, she has completed assignments for senior general management, boards of directors and key executives leading significant operations, functions and initiatives.

Previously, Honor spent over 20 years in the media and entertainment industries in management roles. During her eight-year tenure with the Walt Disney Company, she led international sales operations and implemented key strategic projects.

Honor holds a Master's Degree in Human Resources and is based in the firm's London office.

Commenting on the appointment – Wes Richards, Vice-Chairman and Head of CTPartners Global Technology, Media & Telecommunications Practice says: "Honor brings tremendous industry understanding and strength to our Practice. With an extensive knowledge of the media, entertainment and digital industries, she guides clients through the complex human capital challenges including a greater need for diversity at the top that firms face today."

About CTPartners

CTPartners is a leading performance-driven executive search firm serving clients across the globe. Committed to a philosophy of partnering with its clients, CTPartners offers a proven record in C-Suite, senior executive, and board searches, as well as expertise serving private equity and venture capital firms.

With origins dating back to 1980, CTPartners serves clients with a global organization of more than 400 professionals and employees, offering expertise in board advisory services and executive recruiting services in the financial services, life sciences, industrial, professional services, retail and consumer, and technology, media and telecom industries. Headquartered in New York, CTPartners has 25 offices in 14 countries.